

Family Violence Council - South Bay

To: Professionals in Education, Health, Law Enforcement, Law, Mental Health, the Faith community, as well as all interested persons.

From: Andrea Welsing and Margaret Avineri, Co-Chairs

Date: Friday, September 24, 2004

Time: 8:00 AM - Informal Networking
8:15 AM - Self-Introductions
8:30 AM - Presentation

Location: Little Company of Mary Hospital
Center for Health Education (CHE)
4101 Torrance Blvd, Torrance CA 90503
(Free parking; enter on Earl Street or Torrance Blvd.)

Presenters: Karen Jackson, Ph.D and Wendy Baker, MFT

Topic: Treatment Options for Victims of Intimate Partner Violence

Dr. Jackson is a clinical psychologist with an extensive background in domestic violence. She is a domestic violence trainer for Pepperdine University, an adjunct professor at Antioch University, and maintains a private practice. She was previously the Director of Programs at 1736 FCC where she managed three domestic violence programs.

Wendy Baker is a Marriage and Family Therapist working in private practice in Redondo Beach. She began her work in domestic violence at 1736 FCC in 1995 as the adult counselor and as a children's counselor. Currently, she facilitates two battered women's support groups through the South Bay Youth Project. She also works with the Torrance Police Department for their Victims Support Program.

Meet Colleagues, Network, Get the Latest Information in the Field

1 All attendees may introduce themselves and make brief announcements.

- 2 This is an Interdisciplinary group from health, education, law enforcement, mental health, legal, faith and the domestic violence community
- 3 Let others know about your private practice specialties and current programs.

For more information, call Andrea Welsing, 310.937.1977 or Margaret Avineri, 310.373.0321

Continuing Education Units provided for the following:

LCSW - LMFT -Provider Number: PCE1588

Nurses - Provider Number: BRN00071

There will be a $5 charge for CEUs. Certificates of Attendance are also available upon request.